

Presented by Harvard Initiative for the Science of the Human Past,
Co-sponsored by the Center for Jewish Studies at Harvard University

Preserving and Digitizing the Dead Sea Scrolls: Multi-Spectral Imaging one of Humanity's Greatest Treasures

Wednesday, May 8, 2013 at 5:30pm

CGIS, Tsai Auditorium
1730 Cambridge Street
Cambridge, MA 02138

By Pnina Shor,

Head and Curator, Dead Sea Scrolls Projects,
Israel Antiquities Authority

&

Gregory Bearman, PhD

Israel Antiquities Authority Consultant for Imaging Technologies of the Dead Sea Scrolls

Hosted by Michael McCormick,

Francis Goelet Professor of Medieval History
Chair, Steering Committee for the Science of the Human Past

Harvard Initiative for the Science of the Human Past
Robinson Hall
35 Quincy Street
Cambridge, MA 02138

617- 495-2556
history@fas.harvard.edu
<http://projects.iq.harvard.edu/shp>

The Center for Jewish Studies at Harvard University
William Landau Lecture and Publication Fund

617 - 495 - 4326
cjs@fas.harvard.edu
facebook.com/CenterforJewishStudies